About

Over the years, Claudia has led her department in hosting a city wide Culture Festival. She is an active member of the Latino community in Nashua and most recently was the MC for the Nashua Multicultural Festival.

Claudia frequently has her students engage in authentic cultural practices while using the target language to talk about what they are making, how it compares to their own culture, and how it reflects the culture they are learning about.

On the national level, Claudia has been an AP Spanish Exam and Culture reader and serves as president of the Sociedad Honoraria Hispánica.
