About

The New Hampshire School Administrators Association in coordination with the national American Association of School Administrators is pleased to recognize Mr. Reuben Duncan as the 2023 New Hampshire Superintendent of the Year. As Superintendent for the Jaffrey-Rindge Cooperative School District, parents, community members, and staff members alike recognize the district's growth due to Reuben's powerful vision for learning to meet the needs of every learner. As a true Champion for Children, Mr. Duncan was selected by a panel of his peers from a distinguished group of nominees to represent all superintendents and their work in support of public education.
