About

Ms. Renee D'Allesandro has been chosen as the New Hampshire School Nurses' Association School Nurse of the Year 2023-2024 from an exceptional group of nominees. Rising to the challenge of school nursing, Ms. D'Allesandro's nomination included testimonials from her colleagues at Concord High School that clearly demonstrate the trust and confidence she inspires in her school community; it is this collaborative spirit that best represents the values of the NH School Nurses' Association and gets to the heart of her selection. Ms. D'Allesandro is described as a "student-centered nurse" that displays professionalism, compassion, and genuine interest in each and every student she encounters. The New Hampshire School Nurses' Association is thrilled to share and celebrate Ms. D'Allesandro's achievements with this award.
