About

The New Hampshire School Boards Association is pleased to present the 2023 School Board of Excellence Award to the Oyster River Cooperative School Board. The ORCSB excelled in every facet of school board leadership, with a particular emphasis on offering quality leadership that is student centered; seeking to improve its own board governance by engaging in a thoughtful and deliberate board self-evaluation process; ensuring that the board participate in professional development through training offered by NHSBA; partaking in long-range planning that involved broad-based, community-wide participating; and advancing anti-discrimination school board policies to ensure that all students are safe, respected and welcomed.
