About

The New Hampshire School Counselor Association has selected Jennifer Lyon as the 2023 School Counselor of the Year. Lyon was nominated by her superintendent for the exceptional work that she has done for her district. Jennifer launched and chairs the PBIS schoolwide program. She introduced the Second Step and Zone of Regulations curriculum to the school. Lyon not only is there for the students, she is there for the staff as well. She takes the time to ask the educators for their input on how to improve the culture of the school. These are just a few of the reasons that Jennifer Lyon was chosen as the School Counselor of the Year.
