

Celebrate

Krystal Searah NHSLMA Outstanding Library Media Program

The 30th Annual New Hampshire Excellence in Education Awards recognize New Hampshire schools and individuals who meet high standards of excellence. The criteria used in selecting outstanding individuals to be honored are determined by their sponsoring organizations.

Follow us!
@nh-edies

About

Krystal Searah of Merrimack Valley Middle School (MVMS) has been honored with the Outstanding Library Program of the Year Award by the New Hampshire School Library Media Association (NHSLMA). Her dedication and innovative approach have significantly enhanced the library media program at MVMS, where she has served as the librarian for the past eight years. Krystal's journey in education began at MVMS, first as a student and later as a 7th grade language arts teacher. Her deep connection to the school and its community has fueled her passion for fostering a vibrant, engaging library environment that encourages curiosity and a love for learning among students. Her commitment extends beyond just students; she is equally devoted to supporting her colleagues, embodying the spirit of collaboration and mentorship. Describing her role as a librarian as a "joyride," Krystal's enthusiasm and positive influence resonate throughout the school. Her mission to sprinkle positivity and inspiration across the school community has transformed the library into a dynamic space where students and staff alike can thrive. Krystal's ability to nurture a new generation of book-loving, knowledge-seeking individuals, while celebrating the joys of learning, truly makes her role more than a job—it's a calling.